Central Maine Community College has a rolling admissions policy for most academic programs, allowing prospective students to apply throughout the year on a first come, first served basis. All programs begin in September. January admission is possible, allowing students to begin primarily general education courses. Students are urged to apply early for full consideration.

December 31 deadline for complete applications to the Radiologic Technology Program.***

January 31 deadline for complete applications to the Nursing Program.***

*Required testing must be completed by deadline date. Contact the Admissions Office for more information.

Graduation from an approved high school or passing scores on the General Educational Development (GED) Examination through the Maine Department of Education (or other state department of education) is required for admission to the College. Applicants must also meet admission prerequisites for their intended major. (See next page)

Use the checklist to the right to assist in completing your admissions file.
