

2nd Year Student Residence Hall Re-Application

Room Assignment Policy: First year students will have preference in regards to room selection. Second year students may be allowed to live in the Residence Hall based on availability, conduct, school involvement, academic record and traveling distance.

Residence Hall Agreement: The student agrees that compliance with the rules and regulations (available in the Residence Hall Agreement and in the office of the Dean of Students) is a condition of this application.

Residence Life: CM has three residence halls. Each is designed to provide an environment that is conducive to your educational, social and personal growth. A complete staff is available to assure you of quality services and programs. The residence halls house approximately 139 students, depending on the use of double and triple room occupancy.
